

TASTER DAY

MASTER OF TEACHING (DANCE)

SATURDAY 5TH APRIL 2014

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE, LONDON

The day runs from 11am until 3pm and will include an introduction to the RAD and the Master of Teaching (Dance) programme (MTD) as well as a practical workshop and an opportunity to ask questions about postgraduate study.

The MTD programme requires students to undertake practice-based research. The workshop will give you an opportunity to explore research areas which address current issues in dance teaching, and gain greater understanding of the value and potential of practice-based research in your own workplace.

Timetable for the day:

11.00–11.30am	Introduction to the RAD
11.30–11.45am	Coffee break
11.45–1.15pm	Workshop
1.15–2.00pm	Lunch break and tour of the RAD
2.00–3.00pm	Programme overview and Q&A session

To register your attendance, please contact Jenelle Rutherford on jrutherford@rad.org.uk by 28th March 2014.

Royal Academy of Dance
36 Battersea Square
London
SW11 3RA

www.rad.org.uk/study/higher-education

 /RoyalAcademyofDance
 @RADheadquarters

LEARN / TEACH / DANCE

*The Royal Academy of Dance reserves the right to cancel the event if insufficient bookings are received.